

ACTIVITIES IN ADOPTED VILLAGE

ORGANISATION OF ESSAY COMPETITION ON 27TH MARCH 2017: Essay competition for school children on "SwachhBharat-Role of School Children" was organized at Govt. Sr. Secondary School, Akera Dungar on 27th February 2017.

The programme was organized to develop a sense of responsibility in school children and making the functionaries of school and village panchayat alert on various aspects of Swachh Bharat. Dr. Manorma Sharma, principal of the school addressed the gathering and explained the role of school as an agent of social change in the light of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan. Dr. Rammurti Meena, Asst. Regional Director Co-ordinated the programme

Essay Competition for School Children (27.02.2017)

RC officials addressing school children, teachers, Panchayat Samiti members & Villagers in adopted village (27.02.2017) from the Regional Centre.

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS ORGANISED ON 4TH MARCH 2017:

An interactive session was organized with the teachers of Govt. Sr. Secondary School teachers on essentials of professional development of school teachers for quality education. Dr. R. K. Meena, Principal Kendriya Vidyalaya, Jaipur addressed the teachers and interacted with them on various dimensions of recurrent professional development of teachers in the present context. Dr. Rammurti Meena, Asst. Regional

Programme on Professional Development of School Teachers held on 4th March 2017

Debate Competition for School held on 6th March 2017 on SWACH BHARAT: ROLE OF SCHOOL CHILDREN

Director co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre. ORGANISATION OF DEBATE COMPETITION ON 6TH MARCH 2017: A Debate competition was organized for students of standard VII-IX on 6th March 2017 at the Govt. Sr. Secondary school of Akera Dungar. 30 Students from three other schools participated in this programme on the topic "Swachh Bharat: A New Initiative for Self Development". The objectives of the programme were to inculcate a spirit of ownership among school children towards their school and school environment. Dr. Rammurti Meena, Asst. Regional Director co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre.

HEALTH CAMP ON 5TH MARCH 2017: A health camp was organized at the adopted village on 5th

Dr U. S. Agrawal, President, IMA Inaugurating the HEALTH CAMP AT ADOPTED VILLAGE ON 5TH MARCH 2017

March 2017. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. U. S Agarwal, President, Indian Medical Association. Dr Agarwal addressed the gathering and focussed on providing quality health services to all sections of the society as a mission. Dr. Vinod Kumar Yogi, Block CMHO extended all support and co-operation for organization of this health camp and free distribution of medicine to villagers.

Dr. Archana, Medical officer Shahpura, Dr. Jyoti Yogi, Medical officer Dwani and Dr. Govind Sharma, Medical officer SMS Hospital extended free consultation to more than 150 villagers in the camp. Dr. Rammurti Meena, Asst. Regional Director co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre.

HEALTH CAMP AT ADOPTED VILLAGE ON 5TH MARCH 2017

SWACHH BHARAT ABHIYAN-ROLE OF SCHOOL CHILDREN: A camp was organized at the Upper Primary School of Adopted Village Akera Dungar on 11th March 2017. Sh. Rajendra Kumar Garg, Chief Health Officer, Nagar Nigam Jaipur inaugurated the camp and addressed the teachers, students and villagers. Sh. Vijay Singh, State Liaison Officer, NSS was the Guest of Honour and addressed the gathering to motivate the school children and explained the objectives of NSS and role of children and youth of the society.

The main objectives of the programme was to develop a sense of dignity of labour in school going children and make them understand their roles and responsibilities for SwachhVillage. Dr. Rammurti Meena, Asst. Regional Director Co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre.

CONSULTATION ON AGRICULTURE AND HORTICULTURE: A consultation camp was organized at the adopted village on 16th March 2017. Sh. Mukesh Kumar Kumawat, ARO (Agriculture) from Krishi Pant Bhawan, Jaipur was invited as the chief Guest and addressed the villagers of the adopted village on various dimensions of agriculture and horticulture a means of lively hood for poor people. He also explained various plans, programmes and initiatives of Govt. of India and Govt. of Rajasthan to poor villagers for improving their financial status through agriculture, horticulture and veterinary. A question answer session was organized to address to the query and questions of villagers. Dr. Rammurti Meena, Asst. Regional Director Co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre.

Development of Agriculture & Horticulture: Counselling & Consultation [16th March 2017]

INTERACTIVE SESSION ON SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT PLAN: An interactive session was organized at the Govt. Sr. Secondary School, Akera Dungar with teachers, Principal, School Management

INTERACTIVE SESSION ON SCHOOL DEVELOPMENT PLAN
17th March 2017

Committee, members of Panchyat Samiti and student representative on 17th March 2017. Dr. Manorma Sharma, Principal of the school addressed the participants and explained the role of school development plan and roles of various stake holders to have an effective plan of action for the school. Sh. Sher Singh, Asst. Regional Director explained the objectives of School Development plan and how to make it functional for improving quality of implementation of action plan. The session was quite integrative and participatory. Sh. Sher Singh, Asst. Regional Director co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre.

ORGANISATION OF VETERINARY CAMP: A Veterinary camp was organized at the adopted village on 23rd March 2017 in collaboration with the Department of Animal Husbandary, Govt. of Rajasthan. Dr. Surendra Singh Shekhawat of Govt. Veterinary hospital, Harmada with three other doctors took the lead to conduct the camp. 90 cases were handled in the camp with distribution of free medicine to 23 owners. Dr. Indu Ravi, Asst. Regional Director co-ordinated the programme from the Regional Centre.

